ACADEMIC PROJECTS

❖ Photography web page (Mini Project)

Designed and built a Photography web page using HTML and CSS.

❖ Spotify Clone

I showcased a project named “Spotify Clone” where I recreated the popular Spotify music streaming platform’s user interface using HTML and CSS. This project involved designing responsive layouts and emulating the visual style of the original app. The goal was to enhance my front-end web development skills while simulating a real world application.
